If I am Walt in Taiwan

There is an old saying, "Mankind is great because of dreams." Dreams had led Walt's world to a marvelous legend. Supposing you are Walt Disney in Taiwan, what kind of theme park will you build? A place makes people get rid of their worries and get into your dream world happily. Please organize your dream and think in a simple way. You are suggested (1) making the theme park a series of stories, which will help people who come to your wonderland get into the complex easily and connectedly, (2) connect your theme park with at least one of the culture in Taiwan, which better help people around the world to see the charm of Taiwan. So, time for your ideas...

1. First, think of at least four cultures in Taiwan. (eg. Different cultural straits exist in every city and region in Taiwan.)	eating culture of Tainan. ghost culture costume culture Holiday culture
2. The topic of your theme park: (What kind of theme park would you like to build?)	Western and Eastern Ghosts
3. Why?	Because movies and legends often talk about the ghosts' folklore. People like incentive so we create this amusement park to attract some who really like
4. The scheme of your theme parks:	At first, you will see people dressing in costume, stimulating, playing roles in ghosts just like the gate of hell. You can see lots of scaring ghosts walking around such as, zombie, dead people souls, mummy, wolfman and snowwoman and so on. Second, you'll find yummy food in Taiwan Disneyland, like the Pomegranate stinking tofu, Pearl milk, herbal tea, Fish ball soup, Pig's blood cake, Angelica duck, Four spirits soup, and Oyster omelet. That you drool with envy. After having a delicious meal, why not try some Bloody Mary. And have a happy ending of the ghosts - searching route.

"To all that come to this happy place, welcome. Disneyland is your land." -Walt Disney
