

Mysteries of the Past

Name	Stonehenge	Easter Island	Nasca Lines	The Pyramids
Location	In South Britain	In the Pacific	In _____	In _____
Time of Origin	Around _____	Around _____	Began around _____ and took 1000 years to complete	Reached their highest development around _____
Feature	An unusual _____ arrangement of stone columns measuring up to 5 meters in height and are topped with _____.	____-like statues carved from _____. Each wears a crown and has very long ears. All of them are nearly _____, with the tallest being two stories in height and weighing several tons.	Huge arrangement of _____ and drawings carved into the desert near Andes Mountains. Some of the lines are hundreds of miles long.	The largest pyramid took about _____ to build, and involved the labor of 100,000 workers moving 2.6 million blocks of stone into place.
Purpose	Perhaps designed by ancient tribes as an _____ calendar, used to predict lunar and solar _____.	Appear to represent the tribe's _____ that guarded the island, except they are facing _____.	Believed to have had some religious or _____ function, perhaps as a means of communicating with the _____.	Magnificent structures to keep the deceased _____ and _____, including many inner rooms and _____.